Rufus King makes the news line

Through the years the newspaper has become a vital part of society. It is an all-important element — the culmination of thought and experience. Between the covers memories have been preserved, and the feelings of a day or even an era long past can be vividly recalled. The newspaper is, in essence, a bit of frozen time.

With these thoughts, the staff of the Phoenix chose the "newspaper" as the theme for the 1982-1983 yearbook. Just as a paper records the events and feelings of its time, the Phoenix Lampoon captures a year at King: the serious times, the fun, the uniqueness that makes King what it is. Extra, extra, read all about it!!!!!!!

The staff sincerely hopes that you will not be offended by and/or take the remarks, ridicules and copy too seriously.

World events keep Americans watching

For many, 1982 was a year of turmoil. From Central America to Southwest Asia war raged and battles were fought, both at sea and on land. The British won their fight for control of the Falklands after the Argentine troops seized them on April 2. In Poland, Solidarity fought to the end against government repression. Lebanon also experienced a bloody summer, as civil war went on and on. Black clouds of hate hung over much of the world.

The homefront was not quiet either. Widespread unemployment grew and many felt the crunch of the economy. Yet 1982 was not all gloom, doom, and despair. We found that our world was not so bad — at least for a loveable little creature known as E.T.

For fads and fancies, 1982 was a boom year. Valley girls hit the country along with a smash hit record by Moon Unit Zappa, doing her "Valspak" imitations. Smurfs and Strawberry Shortcake flooded the market for the little ones. For almost everyone else there was an influx of "Real Men", Garfield, and fancy shoelaces. Video games gained popularity as thousands of avid players plugged quarters into Pac Man, Donkey Kong, and Centipede. Even Moonies were popular in 1982. Reverend Sun Myung Moon married 2075 identically dressed couples in Madison Square Garden.

1982 also saw the defeat of the ERA amendment, which fell short of passage by three states. Yet supporters would not be daunted. Desperate measures such as a chain gang sit-in at the Illinois state house were used.

In the world of sports, football fans were displeased about the strike which lasted for eight long weeks. Baseball fans, especially in Milwaukee, were still reveling in the Brewer's run to the World Series. Italy joined the partying, as well, but for a different sport. On July 11, they won the World Soccer Cup.

On May 1, the World's Fair opened in Knoxville, Tennessee, bringing the cultures of many lands together. Using "Energy" as its theme, the fair revolved around a giant sun sphere, a symbol of the world's search for energy control and conservation.

Meanwhile, England rang with reports of trouble in paradise. The royal palace shook with rumors of Prince Andrew and soft-porn actress Koo Stark. Yet the arrival of Prince William Arthur Phillip Louis, heir to the throne, helped to life the Queen's spirits. Maybe it won't rain on the Queen's next birthday parade.

Death took its toll as well. We lost John Belushi, Henry Fonda, Bess Truman, Ayn Rand, and the beloved Princess Grace of Monaco. On November 15, Brezhnev of the Soviet Union was buried near Red Square, leaving Russia in turmoil. He had ruled for 18 years. The power then went to Andropov. The world waits for the outcome. Ingrid Bergman also died leaving the world with only her memory.

In the Midwest, the Tylenol crisis claimed the lives of innocent consumers. Capsules of Tylenol, found to be tainted with cyanide, claimed the lives of seven people in Chicago. This spurred a huge investigation as well as a string of similar poisonings in other products.

1982 was a year of great highs and great lows. With the experience of the year behind us, we are ready to face another.

Yes! yes! a pennant!

Coming from behind, the Brewer's defeated the California Angels 4-3, at Milwaukee County Stadium to win the American League Pennant. The Brewer's seized the pennant, and marked the first time in the history of the American League Playoffs, that a team had recovered from a 2 game loss to win three straight games and a trip to the World Series.

The winning margin for the Brewers, was provided by Cecil Cooper, who singled Charlie Moore and Jim Gantner home in the bottom of the 7th inning, 5th game of the playoffs. In the 9th inning, Peter Ladd came into the game to retire three consecutive Angel hitters.

Outstanding performances by Robin Yount (American League MVP) and Pete Vukovich (Cy Young award winner), under the superior management of Harvey Kuehn (Manager of the Year) are to be commended.

Close but no cigar

After seven cliff-hanging games of baseball, thousands of celebrating fans crowded the diamond at Busch Stadium to congratulate their World Champion Team- The St. Louis Cardinals. The seventh and most important game of the 1982 World Series ended in a 6-3 defeat for the Milwaukee Brewers.

Despite the loss, Brewer fans gathered on Wisconsin Ave. for the last time of the season. In St. Louis, Cardinal fans celebrated on Broadway and Morgan Sts.

Tens of thousands of people welcomed the Brewers home from St. Louis in a parade that made its way slowly down the Avenue.

For the final display of admiration and loyalty to the Brewers, Gov. Dreyfus has proclaimed Oct. 21 Milwaukee Brewers Day in Wisconsin.

King in 1982 DECATHALON

Over the past several years a small academic contest in California has grown to national proportions. The contest has become known as the U.S. Academic Decathlon. In February, 1982 King was invited to represent Wisconsin at the contest to be held in mid-April.

With only two months to choose and prepare a team, Mr. Kroll and Ms. Cassilo had their work cut out for them. Sixty-one students participated in the first round of elimination which consisted of a battery of tests covering everything from career ed to the fine arts. Of these students, thirty-four made the two speeches that were the second round. Nineteen students were interviewed to finally determine the six member team: Rachel Nardin, Richard Rheingans, Robert Trunley, Claudia Busalacchi, Cherlene Ross and Jonathan Ellwanger. Beth Bosworth, Jeff Bartos, and Susan Schoenemann were chosen as alternates for the team.

In mid-April the team went to Los Angeles to participate in the contest. The team members scored these totals: Robert 7590, Rachel 6957, Claudia 6951, Jonathan 6739, Richard 6700, and Cherlene 5745. This gave a grand total of 40,682 points while the fifth place amassed 41,000 points.

The team did receive three individual awards. Richard was given a gold medal for speech, Jonathan, a silver medal for speech, and Robert a silver medal for science.

Overall it was a very successful trip for the whole team.

Bonnie visits with Senator Proxmire

Visiting the Capitol

The Spring and Summer of 1982 was for Bonnie Wasserman an exciting and unusual time. She was a page for Senator Proxmire in Washington D.C. She lived in a girls dormitory four blocks from the Capitol. Bonnie spent many hours working, sightseeing, and having a good time.

Her duties in the Senate included filling water glasses, bringing in chairs and podiums into the chamber, and delivering messages between offices. An occasional smile and thank you from a Senator was more than enough to keep her spirits up.

While in Washington, Bonnie had the opportunity to see the President on Memorial Day in Arlington Cemetery and at Andrews Airforce Base. The highlight of the summer was the 4th of July. Accompanied by her brother and a friend, Bonnie saw brilliant fireworks light up the sky over the Lincoln Memorial. A truly exhilarating and patriotic experience.

Another terrific experience was meeting people from all over the country. Among those was Amy Carter, who had ice cream at Bob's Famous Ice Cream Store with Bonnie. This trip proved to be an experience of a lifetime for Bonnie.

King tours World's Fair

Over Memorial Day weekend, 1982, forty students traveled to Knoxville, Tennessee for the 1982 Knoxville World's Fair. The theme of the fair was energy, and there were exhibits from many countries of the world, which displayed, among other things, energy problems and their solutions.

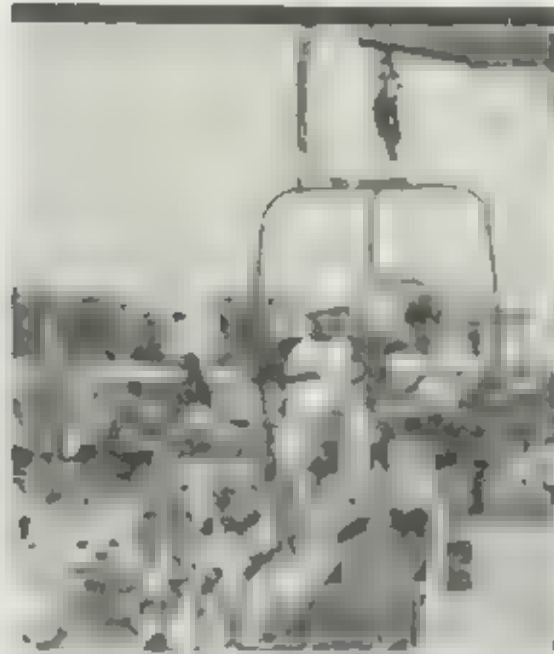

For two days students were allowed to tour the fair grounds and view things of interest to them. Among the more popular sights at the fair were: the Chinese Pavilion; featuring beautiful Chinese Art and pieces of the Great Wall of China, the Hungarian Pavilion; featuring a giant moving Rubik's Cube and the Sunsphere; a structure erected for the World's Fair. For a fee a person could travel to the top of the Sunsphere and view the Tennessee River Valley.

Another popular place was the video arcade. It was air conditioned and a welcome change from the ninety degree heat. Although the heat seemed unbearable, and the lines were long, it proved to be a thoroughly informative and enjoyable trip for all.

Tennis Team goes for an Ace

With the coming of spring, the members of the Boy's Tennis Team were out on the courts, practicing under the watchful eye of Mr. Minor. Although the team is small and newly formed, they have learned to reap the benefits of hard work and dedication, by training early and concentrating on the specifics of the game.

Last year, King's young team faced opponents such as Racine Horlick, Whitefish Bay, Shorewood, and West Milwaukee in the Conference Finals, which were played at Wauwatosa West High School. King earned Victor's Ribbons as well as recognition.

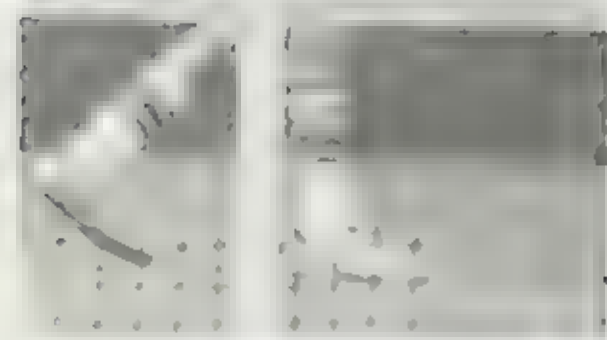

Mr. Minor predicts great things to come for the team in the spring of '83. With time to grow, the team will develop into a major competitor in the Suburban Conference.

Golf team gets swinging

You could almost say that golf is a tradition — and one that has been forgotten at King. Last spring, King's young team made it all the way to the Regional Tournament, and the overall scoring average for a four man team improved by 30 shots for 9 holes. Each golfer concentrated on bettering their skills under the direction of Mr. Blatnak.

The team itself was composed of 5 sophomores, and 1 junior. Matches were played against many suburban schools, which posted 6 wins, 9 losses, and 1 tie. The 1981-82 team captain was Scott Kaserling, and Jim Gehrke was top medalist once again. For the '83 season, King's Golf team will boast six returning members.

Boy's Track faster than light

The Rufus King's 1982 Boy's Varsity Track Team deserves a round of applause for an outstanding season. The Class B team was directed by Mr. Marshall Gallant, who with his fine techniques in coaching has made King known throughout the city as a "Class B Power" and a "Class A Threat". This experienced team has not only brought fans to their performances, but also the media.

The "Class B Power" was composed of many excellent participants. Together they formed the "1982 Class B State Champions". The Champion 880m relay consisted of Michael Peavy, Vernon Gray, Joe Jackson, Robert Hackett, and Paul Daniels, while powerful Malik Mahmoud set long jump records. The "2nd place Class B State Winners" for the mile relay consisted of John Jankowski, Malik Mahmoud, Joe Jackson, and Michael Peavy. This excellent set of runners missed 1st place by a mere 2 points. Other King runners were Greg Warner and Todd Graves- 880m run, Craig Hagensick- 1 and 2 mile run, Chris Hoefler and John Jankowski- 440m run, David Howden- 1 mile run, and Hadrian Moore- discus and shot put.

The General's star in 1982 was Robert Hackett. This star not only shone in the eyes of his fans, but Many prestigious and well-earned scholarship offers were made to Malik Mahmoud, who is now attending the University of Arkansas. Robert Hackett received offers from schools in the Big 8 and Big 10 conferences.

also in the eyes of the media. His swift legs carried him to be known as the fastest runner in the Wisconsin area, and to many award winning victories. During this past summer of 1982, Hackett participated for the second time in the National Junior Olympics for the Milwaukee Striders Track Club. Hackett's accomplishments include finishing 4th in the nation in both the 100 and 200m dashes. Hackett also holds all King records in both events

Girl's Track gets running start

The enthusiasm that filled the members of the Girl's Track Team in the Spring of '82 has now turned into memories. But they are memories filled with excitement; the type of excitement that grows within a winning team. Under the careful guidance of Ms. Holmes, the Rufus King Girl's Track Team capped a successful season of meets with a trip to the State Competition. Besides placing third out of 55 teams on the state level, four of their members went on to capture individual laurels in hurdles and sprinting, the team's strongest points. These star members were three seniors—Crystal Hutchins, Yolanda Crockett, and Mona Cleman, and one junior, Christy Brown. It was the perfect culmination of a season of fine performances.

Of course, high hopes are in the air for the '83 season. Although many members of the team have left, bright new talent has developed in the form of freshmen; and seniors Anne Fogarty and Christy Brown are promising figures for the spring meets. Once again, long hours of practice lay ahead ... but with the talent and determination of the team as a whole, many are predicting great things to come.

Girl's Soccer kicks to the top

In the Spring of 1982, the King Girl's Soccer team had one of their best seasons thus far. The team placed third in the city, being one of the top three teams with a record of 8 wins, 1 loss, and 2 ties. Francis Haynes, the Girl's Soccer Team's new coach, provided fresh ideas, and the strong support necessary for a winning season.

As a freshman, Gillian Westbrook did an outstanding job as goalie. Other freshman were Cecily Mulroy and Marcey Dawson, who were very aggressive players, and gave their total effort to the team. A strong defensive line was composed of Amy McBride, Maria Williams, Wendy O'Conner, Alisa Finkle, and many other impressive players.

With only two players leaving from last year's team, next season looks just as promising. The addition of many new players, as well as last year's seasoned veterans, King will continue to provide a very challenging Girl's Soccer Team.

Girls Softball breaks even

The Rufus King Girl's Softball Team finished with a terrific 1982 season, showing outstanding teamwork in every game. Under the direction of coach Ray Kroll, the team seems to improve each year, and the 1982 season was the best ever.

Seniors, Judy Lieblin, Liz Harper, Lisa Moore, Sue Jankowski, Carla Brown, and Tanya Wagner did a tremendous job all year and showed great leadership. New comer Donna Lemke, showed incredible strength and promising potential for the future. Junior Denise Silverman was again the team standard, as she was named to the All-Conference Team for the second straight year.

In addition to the alert and aggressive play throughout the regular season, the Generals posted a respectable post-season record. The team also won the first two games of the tournament, where they beat Union Grove, and Palmira. In the third game King traveled to Whitewater to take on Beloit. Despite a valiant effort by everyone, the Generals were defeated by a score of 2-1.

We salute the efforts of everyone who participated on the 1982 Girl's Softball Team. Other team members were: Wendy Davis-shortstop, Shatana Gilbert-infielder, Jenell Hempler-left field, Angela McLaughlin-outfield, Anna Mui-pitcher, Marnie Reynolds-centerfield, and Brenda Suderland-outfielder.

These girls deserve special congratulations for their victory over the previously undefeated Vincent team. Another highlight of the season was the victory over Juneau.

We are eagerly awaiting the 1983 season. With many returning varsity players, and with the attitude the players have, we confidently look towards a successful season.

J.V. swings through the season

This year's Girl's Junior Varsity Softball Team pulled off another successful season under the direction of Coach Ezell Connors. The King girls practiced hard to achieve their marked progression. The 1982 team had many new players who improved at their assigned positions.

Sophomore Lillian Eddie proved to be a skilled player and a definite asset to the team. Sheila Finnegan and Connie Kenzierski also showed potential for the future. Other outstanding players not to be counted out when clutch situations arose, were Jeanne Krawczyk, Jalisa Thompson, Elizabeth Estes, and Mary McDuffie. Speed and power on offense plus excellent defensive plays were King's team credentials for respect in a tough division. The year ended on a high note with the 1983 season looking even better. This team could be the foundation for a new era in Girl's Softball at King.

The General's Varsity Baseball Team was in the process of rebuilding during the 1982 season under the direction of Coach Lee. Last year's team fielded four seniors, Paul Bingham, Chris Litzau, Joe Colon, and Dan Kegu. These seniors along with some strong help from the junior class, led the Generals past Riverside, South, and to a tie with Marshall.

With the season behind them, the Generals entered the regional tournament ready to play, but lost to a tough East Troy team 2-1 on the last pitch. Senior Paul Bingham pitched a perfect game up until the fifth inning.

Paul also led the team with two homeruns, and made the second All-City Team. Paul and sophomore Dewey Lewandowski, who had one homerun, were the offensive powers. On defense the Generals were led by Chris Litzau, Robert Macon, and Dan Serebin. Dan is the team's only four year letterman. King's returning battery will include Joe Kuhlman, Robert Macon, Dan Serebin, and Dewey Lewandowski.

Coming up from the J.V. will be some promising talent in the form of John Fogarty, Bruce Patterson, George Wineman, and Calvin Rabideaux. Pitching for next season seems to be a little thin because of the number of leaving seniors. Coach Lee is depending on J. V. for some help in long and short relief.

J.V. boasts promising new stars

Rufus King's J. V. Baseball team posted a winning record of 9 wins and 7 losses. Coach Dreblow led the Generals through strong efforts against other tough teams in their division. The toughest games played were against Kenosha Tremper and a non-conference battle against a veteran Pulaski team. Good pitching throughout the season by starters Krueger, Shultz, and reliever Adams, gave King's power hitters valued support. From the 15 member squad Calvin Rabideaux, George Weinman, and Paul Krueger emerged as future stars. Rabideaux had a strong season at the plate and Collier hit for the highest average. Several other players also had better than average seasons. Out fielders Derek IZard and John Winderl proved competent at their assigned positions with strong fielding efforts and accurate throws to the cut-off man. Coach Dreblow is going to have to work on the rebuilding process for next year, but if last years team is any evidence, things look very promising

This year's Rufus King Varsity Football team gained respect in a tough suburban conference. Even the powerhouse teams of Whitefish Bay and Shorewood felt the sting of general determination. Although the main weapons on offense will be missing, next year returning players who gained valuable playing time were H. Moore, B. Patterson, T. Ennis, and Le Martin. Because 8 of 10 starting defensive team members will be gone next year, H. Moore, J. Barton and B. Patterson will be counted on heavily. Of the 12 seniors leaving, Robert Hackett and John Milton were named to the all conference team.

Homecoming was a tremendous success. King destroyed visiting Juneau with an impressive 32-0 victory. With our victory over Riverside 19-0 our season ended in a positive manner.

Cross Country Team runs on and on Cross Country is a growing sport in the United States. King's 1982 Cross Country team has done very well even though they were hurt by the loss of seniors; and being a small and inexperienced team. Outstanding individuals on this years team were Ray Ramsey, Byron Andrews, and Robert Fogarty. The Cross Country team competed most of the time at Estabrook Park. Coach Gordon is looking forward to a better season next year due to the returning players and hopes to see many new faces.

The fall of '82 brought the Girl's Tennis Team a new season, as well as a larger team to face it. There were a record number of girls last year, which stood to represent new interest in the sport. Mr. Knopp, their coach, was pleased with the size of the team, and the optimism they showed throughout the season. Spirits were high, and improvements were made towards reaching their goals. Their record in the Suburban Conference was 10 wins against seasoned teams such as Shorewood, Racine Horlick, and Riverside. Players such as Jane Kocol, Donneva Falson, and Beth Bosworth, turned in fine performances, and promise was shown by the many upcoming hopefuls.

Jason Balistreri was injured and out for the beginning of the season. Mike Hiddell replaced him for a short amount of time. Although inexperienced, Mike did a remarkable job for the team.

The team was led by captains Dan Baldwin and Dewey Lewandowski. Valuable players this season include newcomer Peter Balistreri, as well as juniors Tom Reep, and sophomores Peter Bosworth and Joel Haulbrich

This season the team was 4-7 in the conference, 1-1 in tournament play, and 0-1 in non-conference action.

When Peter Balistreri returned the team quickly pulled together to finish the season with a four game winning streak outscoring their opponents 11-0.

Francis Haynes has been the boys soccer coach for the past two seasons. In those two seasons he has managed a very impressive team. Each player has improved through the effort of Coach Haynes. Next season the team hopes Francis Haynes will be back and take his team to the top.

This season the team, overall, was much improved. All the players will return next season and be a definite conference power

Volleyball serves up a fine season

The Rufus King Girl's Varsity and Junior Varsity Volleyball team showed marked improvement from previous years. This improvement was in both skills, and overall record. The Varsity squad finished with a strong 12th place record.

One of the "thrillers" of the season was the Varsity match versus Juneau. King won the match by a tremendous come back. King was down by ten points and with clutch playing, strong serving, overall hustle, and most of all, character, they came back to win the game, and the match.

The Varsity and J.V. team developed into a stronger team this year. Players who performed with outstanding merit throughout the season were; Most Improved-Tyra Osbourne, Most Promising-Maria Williams, Most Valuable-Dawn Lehman, and Best All Around-Denise Silverman, who obtained the best serving percentage, per-capita, with a 97.7 percentage. The most outstanding Varsity player achievement was from the four year veteran Dawn Lehman, who finished with a 2nd All Conference Team position.

The Junior Varsity team also had several outstanding players. Their awards included Most Valuable-Donna Childs, Best All Around-Jenny Forlenza, and Most Improved-Stephanie Welsh. Jenny Forlenza also captured Best Serving Percentage honors.

The final awards go to Coaches Holmes and Bell, who showed great character. Their enthusiastic support led to a pleasing season, as well as a brief glance into Volleyball's bright future at King.

Girls Swim races through another season

Splashing into a new season under the direction of Ms. Smith, the 1983 Girls Swim team entered into competition with a majority of freshmen and sophomores (and only 2 juniors). After much practice at Juneau and North Division's pools, the stars of the season proved to be Brigett Callahan and Amy Shuster. Other outstanding performances were turned in by such swimmers as Bonnie Wasserman, Monica McLaughlin, Kathy Walkowiak, Karen Erdtmann, Kim Ollermann and Kris Kruezer. Altogether, the team felt that it has been a rewarding year, and hopes are high for the future.

General impressiveness

The Rufus King Varsity basketball team finished the 1981-1982 season by winning its last four conference games. They finished with an 11-4 conference record and 13-4 overall.

The Generals then swept through the Shorewood regionals with decisive victories over Shorewood, Slinger, and West Milwaukee. The team then faced a highly rated Mayville team in the Sectionals at Kewaskum. Mayville had only lost one game throughout their season before their defeat at the hands of the Generals. Our team held off the Cardinals to win by eight points. Unfortunately, the road to Madison was blocked by a tough Milton team. The Generals fell to Milton in the sectional finals by a score of 62-59.

The 1982-1983 season started out in the same fashion as the previous season. The Genrals won their first five starts which included victories over former city conference rivals, Custer and Marshall, before their loss to Waukesha South. The team and their great fans are anxiously awaiting this years post season tournament.

J. V. and Freshman Basketball: future force

The Junior Varsity Basketball team at King headed by their new coach, Derek Gallagher, has improved considerably. The team lost three very close games last season. The most disappointing loss was a defeat at the hands of the Shorewood Greyhounds. However, the Generals have soundly beaten West Division and West Allis/Hale.

All members of the team have shown promise, especially forward Al Cooper, center Danny Carter, and guards Derek Izard and Kelly Brown. This years high scorer is Al Cooper and the leading rebounder is D. Carter. Both the Varsity and the J.V. teams competed in Class A competition last season.

With continued hard work and effort, Coach Gallagher expects nothing short of perfection from this promising group. With each member doing his best, King's J.V. team is sure to go far. Is Coach Gallagher's Purple gym suit supposed to help?

Girls Basketball on the rebound

The girls varsity basketball team has had a better than average season. Under the direction of new head coach Mr. Burgher, the team improved its record over last year.

With the scoring of Wendy Davis and Tyra Osborne at forward, and the domination under the basket of Sheila (Stretch) Hughes, King scored easily on numerous opponents. A strong bench and skilled work at the guard position from Anne Fogarty and Denise Silverman literally wore down the opposing team time after time.

Although several senior team members are leaving, next year's team should remain solid with upcoming players to fill the vacated spots.

The junior varsity, despite having their problems this year, developed several players who hold future promise. Maria Williams, Rhonda Jackson, and Donna Cheids will be counted upon next year for more great games.

King's Bowling team leaves few pins to spare

From the end of November until the beginning of March, the 8 teams of Rufus King's intramural bowling club have been competing at the Red Carpet Bowlero every Friday. This is the 5th year for King's bowling club. Of the 35 bowlers, those seniors who will be leaving are likely to be replaced by incoming freshmen.

At the end of the season, trophies are awarded to the 2 high teams and to the students with high games and averages. Right now, Calvin Rabideau has the high game with 245 and Jim Gehrke has the high average with 172.

In the two years that the Parent-Student McMurrin Traveling trophy has been in existence, Rufus King has had it the whole time. The team owes much to their advisor Mr. Kroh. Keep up the good work! We all hope the team remains as strong as it has been for a long time.

King's Ski Club-dopes on the slopes

Although hampered by an unusually small amount of snow, King's ski club has been able to salvage some of its 1982-1983 season. The club tries to incorporate both cross country and downhill skiing into its trips. So far this season the club has travelled to Majestic and Little Switzerland Ski Resorts, both of which have downhill and cross country skiing. The club hopes to ski at Devil's Head ski resort but as of the end of January, sufficient snow had not yet arrived.

Hopes are high that next season will provide a greater amount of snow for the resorts and skiers.

Christy Brown - running the distance

For the past two years Christy Brown has participated in the state track competition. Last year Christy placed second in the 4x100 meter relay. She has also competed in the National Junior Olympics where she participated in the 400 meter dash, the triple jump, and the 4x100 meter relay. Academically, this senior sets high goals for herself and succeeds. She is a member of both the Spanish Honor Society and the National Honor Society. Christy is a finalist this year in the National Achievement Scholarship Program. Outside of school she sings in a church youth choir and is a youth missionary.

The leader of the track

Anne Fogarty - jack of all trades

Anne is an outstanding athlete who competes in track, cross country, and basketball. She has been a letter winner in each of these sports and has also maintained a high grade point average. During the summer Anne has worked for Tony Earl and has been involved in supportive measures for Earnest Lacey. Art is another area in which Anne excels. This year she received a second place award in oil painting at the Capitol Court Student Art Exhibit.

Tyra Osborne - no nonsense athlete

Tyra, a transfer student from Cairo, Illinois, has been a starter and a letter winner in both basketball and volleyball. In her sophomore year she led the basketball team in scoring and free throws. This year Tyra is a starting forward. In volleyball, she was a leader in spiked shots and was voted Most Improved Player. Aside from her athletic achievements, Tyra has been a representative to the Student Council, an A.V. monitor, Student Council Sergeant at Arms, and a library monitor. Upon graduation, Tyra plans to join the Air Force.

Dan Serebin - a real steal

Mr. Baseball has competed and lettered for King's baseball team since his freshman year. As a sophomore, Dan played every inning and was named the Most Improved Player. In his junior year this experienced catcher threw out twice as many runners as last year. This senior catcher is now the most experienced player at his position in the league. Dan is a possible All-City candidate, being very consistent and reliable.

Mr. Baseball

John Milton - a wanted player

John Milton, an outstanding All-conference basketball player has been a member of King's varsity team for four years. Without his skill, it is unlikely that the Generals would have been 1983 conference champs. He has been chosen as one of the top 500 high school basketball players in the country. Colleges such as Alcorn University, Illinois State, and Memphis State have recruited him. John-John has also been first team All-conference defensive end the last two years and was picked as one of the top 50 Wisconsin High School football players by Wisconsin sports writers. Colleges which have recruited him for his football skills are: University of Wisconsin, Madison; and Northern Michigan.

Tall, dark, and handsome

Willie Hines - basketball's secret weapon

According to the Milwaukee Journal, "Willie Hines is part of one of the most awesome guard combinations in the state." Willie ranks high in scoring with a 16.9 game average. He is one of the chief reasons our team has gone to state competition for a second straight year. An all-conference ball handler and scorer, Willie can penetrate or hit from the outside with ease. Willie has been a varsity ballplayer for four consecutive years. As a sophomore Willie was named second team all-conference guard. In his junior year he was named captain of the team, and also made second team all-conference. King lost in the regional finals last year, however, Willie was still selected to the all-area team. In his senior year Willie was again the captain, leading to the suburban championship. This year he has been selected as one of the top 500 high school players in the country. He was also selected to play on the first team all-conference by the suburban coaches.

Willie make a basket?

Tom Waters - a great asset to sports

Tom has been on Varsity Football for three years working in the defensive and offensive lines. As a junior Tom was named first team all conference as an offensive tackle. In his senior year Tom played both offensive guard and defensive tackle. Basketball has also been one of Tom's interests this year. He has helped the Generals earn a division championship playing on the second team as a forward. Noted for his good defense and valuable assist percentage, Tom has proven to be a great asset for coach Gordon.

A motto to be followed

An impressive sight

Like my friends?

I want my three wishes

A majority of a student's time is spent in the building pictured above. Long days and after school activities make the corridors and rooms popular places. Almost every inch of space is used from basement to fifth floor. The halls at times seem to be a mass of humanity, other times they are long and void of any life. Everyone has their place to be and King students enjoy this one

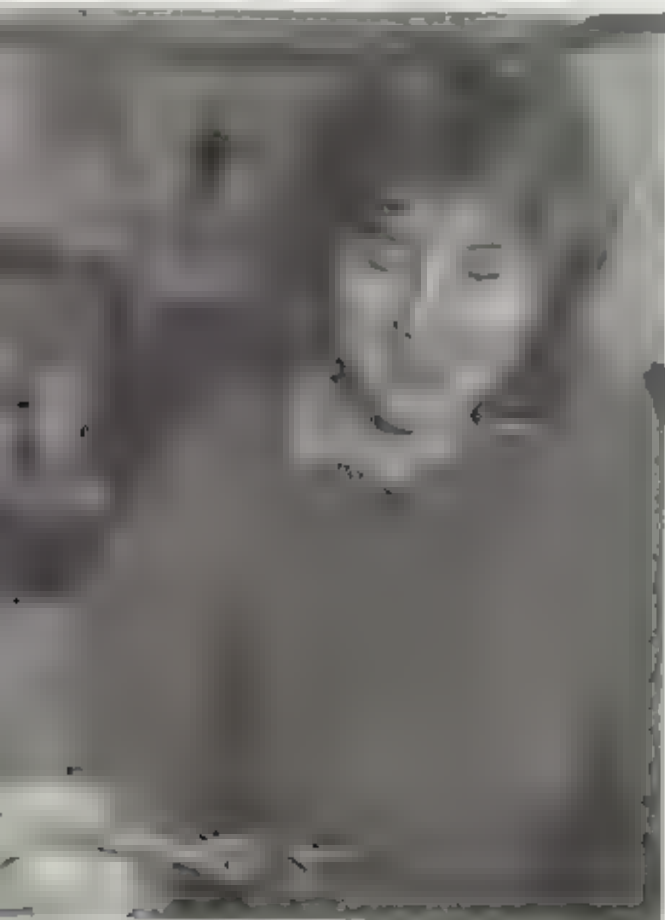

Really, people do go to this school

Stacy loves a home cooked meal

The delicious meals prepared at Rufus King serve hundreds of students each day. State your delight and it's made to order. Ask any student in school and they will tell you about the food. A staff of fifteen cooks and dishwashers spend hours producing epicurean delights beyond one's wildest fantasy. An example of a daily feast could be the palatable and infamous "Mock Chicken Leg"

Office staff: Special people

The individuals who carry out the daily tasks which keep things running smoothly in the office are pictured on these two pages. Do you need a program change? Do you need a tardy slip? Do you need an appointment? Do you need an oil change? The secretaries, psychologist, nurse, and social worker are special people. Without their assistance, operations in the building would malfunction.

Art students take their work seriously

The Art department at King Continues to grow. In exhibitions its reputation for entering quality work has become well known. Students have won awards in such prestigious competitions as the Scholastic Show, the Journal Calendar Competition, and the Capitol Court Show. Many students have continued on in art, attending major universities and schools of art.

The program at King is structured to prepare talented students with technical and conceptual knowledge for higher level study. Mr. Zutz and Mr. Drouin work cooperatively in assisting young artists with a contemporary and well prepared background.

West Side Story is a crowd pleaser

West Side Story, This year's spring musical, was well performed with a collaboration of talents. Under the direction of David T. Mackinson, and choreographer-orchestra director Debra J. Jupka, the performers produced a spectacle of a show. West Side Story was complimented by the well designed scenery, created with the help of the art club and other students. The outstanding efforts of the stage crew supported a very smooth show. West Side Story was in essence a total King effort.

Kirk Wolfe, who portrayed the former leader of the Jets, Tony, and Renee Rittenhouse, who performed the role of Maria, combined their vocal talents and acting abilities to create very believable characters.

The Sharks, led by Stephen Nemacheck, as Bernardo, and Stephanie Carpenter as Anita, generated their energies together in all their musical numbers. Also demonstrating his talents, was Randy Bryce, portraying the leader of the Jets, Riff. The many intricately choreographed dance numbers were performed, and finely polished by over fifty talented cast members. King has proven that it goes beyond academics and excels in other areas as well.

Fall Play A big seller

It was a sold out show. Night after night Rufus King's Little Theater was packed with patrons anxiously awaiting the performance of this year's fall play. Needless to say, none were disappointed. Neil Simon's comedy, The Good Doctor, was a successful operation.

Under the direction of Mr. David Mackinson, the relatively large cast of the play performed with style. And as always, Stage Crew was on hand to keep things running smoothly. However, even now that the play is over, no one has fully recovered. Plans are already in the air for the fall of '83. Could this be theatre fever?

Swing Choir has 'em dancing in the halls

King's Swing Choir is made up of a multi-talented group of singers and dancers. The group performed a variety of song and dance numbers this year. The group traveled to LaCrosse for a two-day competition this year which proved to be a unique experience for all members.

President, Sharon Brooks, has led the group through numerous events and activities. The group has sponsored fund-raisers to buy props and costumes for performances.

Concert Choir appeals to the masses

The Rufus King Concert Choir has grown six times over since the graduating seniors were freshmen. From a humble beginning of 24 singers and one class, the choir is so large that it now fills two class periods with almost 70 singers in each section. Accomplished in all types of music, this year's choir under President Johnathan Ellwanger challenged all the city and suburban choirs by entering three class A chorus in contest, the Concert Choir, Women's Chorus and a Men's Choir. Besides performing at numerous events and activities outside of school, the choir sent many people into WSMA competition, tryouts for All State Honors Choir and Kids from Wisconsin. Thanks to this year's graduating, 4 & 3 years of service, seniors, the choir has grown to be one of the outstanding choral groups in the area.

King band marches straight to stardom

Over 95 members strong, the Rufus King Marching Band started this year in style with its new band uniforms. The band, including flags, rifles, and baton twirlers, played in the stands at football games as well as performing pre-game and halftime programs on the field. Under the direction of Mr. Jeffrey Durr, the band put in many hours of practice and hard work to perfect a routine of popular tunes for games and parades. Besides marching in the traditional Homecoming Parade, the band has also performed for area grade schools and this year marched in the televised, annual downtown Christmas Parade. Everyone involved is looking forward to many more future parades and performances, and an even better year next year.

Jazz Ensemble has a style of its own

The Rufus King High School Jazz Ensemble I is a select group of about 20 students. Each member was auditioned and selected on their fine musical skills.

This past year has been a busy one for them! They performed at the fashion show, variety show, several basketball games, our own school concerts, the black history program, they earned a 1-star Gold Award at the WSMA District Solo/Ensemble Contest, held on the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Campus, performed at the 1982 Wisconsin State Fair and earned a 1st Place rating at the 1983 University Of Wisconsin-Whitewater Jazz Festival. At the Whitewater Festival, Michelle Headlam was selected as the outstanding trumpet soloist.

Rehearsals are held every Thursday from 3:00-4:00, with additional sectionals and rehearsals called when needed.

Mr. Durr their director, believes this is one of the finest jazz ensembles in the Milwaukee School System.

Way back when

Jazz Ensemble II gets into the swing

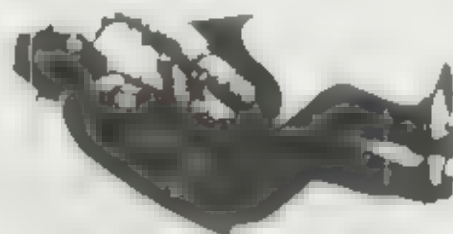

The Rufus King High School Jazz Ensemble II was formed for the first time this school year. After try outs were completed and the results posted for the top Jazz Ensemble, those who were not selected still wanted to perform in a Jazz Ensemble. Thus, the beginning of Jazz II. They rehearse every Tuesday night from 3:00-4:30 with additional sectionals held during lunch hour or after school. This is a very young group with the average grade being just a second semester freshman. They will be entered in the WSMA District Solo/Ensemble Contest to be held March 26, 1983 at Rufus King, and will be entered in the Class B Division. Mr. Durr, their director, enjoys working with this group because all of the members are eager to learn.

Generally talented

Gwen Johnson

Gwen is a senior who plans to continue school majoring in Art. She has worked hard for four years developing her skills. "Summer Street Studio" has also occupied Gwen's last two summer vacations. Working for Mr. Durr, Ms. Jupka, and Mr. Mackinson, she has created several posters and program covers. Gwen feels drawing is her favorite medium. Mr. Zutz sees her potential as unlimited. He states, "Gwen has the ability and determination to succeed."

Jo Boblick

Joe is a senior in Commercial Art. This year Joe has prepared a portfolio for a scholarship competition. Joe's areas of interest include drawing, painting, and photography. Through dedication and hard work in and out of school, Joe has become a proficient draftsman and watercolorist. This year a mural project will be a testimony of his graphic design ability.

Todd Ennis

Todd is a Junior art student who already is excelling in painting and drawing. Todd has won awards for his drawing and paintings. His most recent was for an ink drawing in last year's Scholastic Show held at the Milwaukee Art Museum. Todd is also assistant editor for the 1982-83 yearbook, and will take over as editor in chief next year. Todd's commercial art background and knowledge of graphic design and layout make him an invaluable staff member.

Michele Hinckle

Michele has taken many courses in Art. It is quite evident when you see what she produces. Michele has been in several art competitions. This year she has entered the "1983 Scholastic Show." This exhibition is a very prestigious high school competition. Michele hopes to attend Milwaukee School of Design. Her art classes this year included I.B. Art, Commercial Art, and Drawing.

Outstanding students in theatre

Stephanie Carpenter is one outstanding student at King. She will be graduating in 1984 and she hopes to major in theatre at a major university. When she is not spending time on debate she is helping in the King theatre department. Stephanie has had major roles in "Godspell" and "Westside Story", along with a strong role in the chorus of "Pippin".

Reggie Wilson, has worked with Ms. Jupka on the choreography of plays and other productions put on by the school. Besides this help in dance, he has taken minor roles in King's fall plays, "The Miser" and "The Good Doctor".

Lisa Nemacheck who will graduate in 1983, is noted mostly for her abilities as a dancer. However we have been able to hear her voice in the past three plays, "The Good Doctor", "West Side Story" and "Pippin". Lisa plans to have a career in theatre and dance.

Kevin Izard, from the class of 1983, has taken a role in the past five productions. As a singer, part time dancer, and as a fine actor, Kevin has been a great asset to the theatrical department. From "Godspell" to "Pippin", Kevin was always willing to help!

Stephanie Fidler has had very valuable supporting roles in "Godspell", "West Side Story", and in "Pippin". She has been an important asset as a character actress and singer. The department will miss her as she graduates this year.

The Sharks take a bite out of acting!

Outstanding musicians and king singers

Tara Hofmann - a senior who has been a member of choir for four years and has contributed greatly to its growth. Besides being one of the leads of first sopranos, she has also performed in contests and is a member of the Milwaukee Public Schools Honor Choir

Lisa Knudson - a senior who has been a member of concert choir for four years and one of its accompanists. She is presently the choir's vice president and section leader of the second sopranos. Besides performing the MPS honor choir and contest she has worked as a contest office staff member for four years

Bridget Bunn - a senior, she is an alto and has been a member of the choir for four years. Bridget has been Sgt. at Arms for three years as well as being section leader

Brian Kreuzinger - a senior who is first bass and has been a member of choir for four years. Brian plays with the nationally known Music For Youth Orchestra. He was a gang member in "West Side Story", has played in the concert band, and also played percussion for the other three shows. He has performed numerous contest events in percussion and voice entries

Jason Tishler - a senior who is second bass. Jason has proven to be one of the strongest and most consistent choral performers. He sang and performed the role of John the Baptist in "Godspell" and has earned numerous district and state medals for competition. He was in "West Side Story" and "the Talking Head" in "Pippin"

King musicians play fine tunes

Michele Headlam

Michele has been our lead Trumpet in both our Jazz Ensemble and Concert Band since she arrived here 3 years ago. She has received many fine comments from various judges during her 3 years here. She has gone on to the State Solo/Ensemble Contest the past 2 years and I expect her to do the same this year. At the Whitewater Jazz Festival this year, she was selected as the outstanding Trumpet soloist of the 14 Jazz Ensembles entered. She is truly an outstanding musician.

William Rosche

Like Michele, Bill has held the lead Alto Saxophone seat in both Jazz Camps the past 2 years and marches in the highly acclaimed "Lake Band" of Milwaukee for the past 4 years. Bill is very dedicated to the music department of which he is such an important part.

Thomas Robbins

Tom is a very ambitious person and is extremely helpful. He has regularly entered contests and encourages others to participate as well. Last summer he spent 2 weeks at the University of Wisconsin Madison Music Camp and had such an enjoyable and rewarding time that he plans to return this summer. Tom tried out and was accepted to the newly formed Greater Milwaukee Wind Ensemble which rehearses weekly at UWM. He was the only Milwaukee Public School student accepted into this fine group. Tom plays clarinet in the Concert Band and has just taken up the Tenor Saxophone.

Hot off the presses: King's New Literary Magazine.

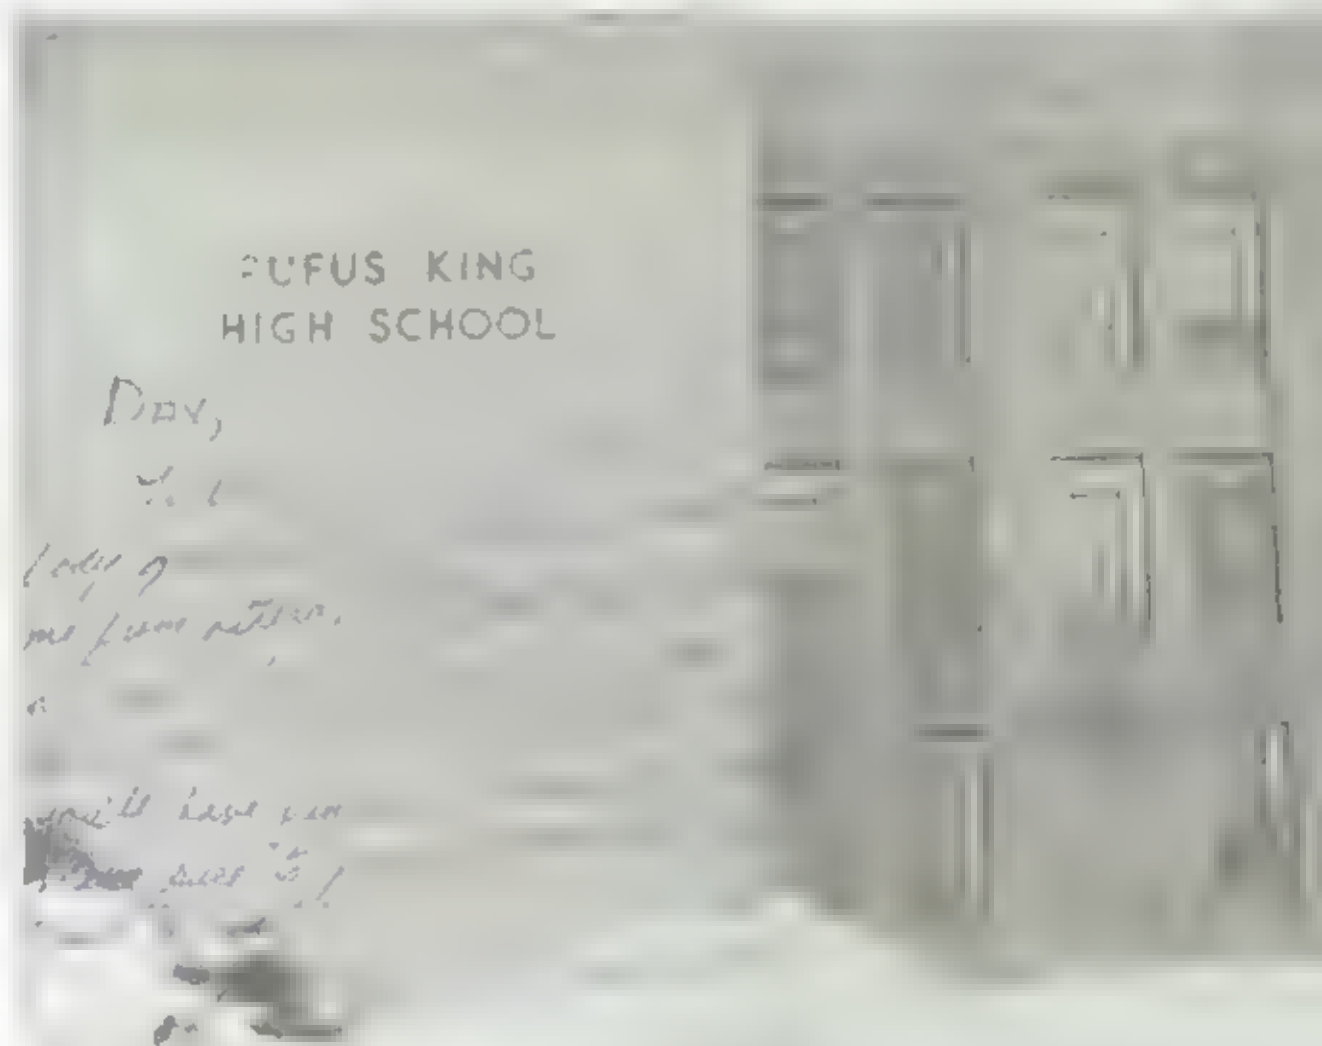

Literary Magazine is a new addition to King's collection of publications which enable students to express themselves in a creative and constructive manner. Advised by Mrs. Benson and funded by the Human Relations Department, the magazine accepts poems, short stories, essays, and sketches from both students and teachers. Literature is selected to be published in the magazine by a board of student literary critics. Although this is their first year, there has been no shortage of literature and they expect to be back in full force next year.

Kazoo Band begins on a good note

Although they no longer exist, the Milwaukee Public Schools first Kazoo Band was born here at Rufus King. Organized and directed by Mr. Mackinson, the band performed such classic numbers as "Super Freak", "Iron Man", and "Honkey Tonk Woman". Unfortunately the band decided to split because all members wished to pursue their solo careers.

Kazoo Band members shovel snow to raise funds for a trip to the Atkinson Library

Coming Attractions: the Junior Class

At last the long awaited release of "The Class of 1984." Unlike the unruly original version, this class has real school spirit. Instead of staying at home and sacrificing fellow students to the devil, these juniors are always at basketball games and school dances. Gone are the tasteless activities of the past. They now engage themselves in such sophisticated activities as building giant skunks. Although it's been sixteen years in the making, "The Class of 1984" has been worth waiting for. Their debut next year is guaranteed to be spectacular. Not recommended for people with high morals or heart conditions

Lost: The class of 1985 has lost their child-like innocence. No longer are they shy freshmen overwhelmed by such mandatory high school activities as slow dancing and talking to the opposite sex. If their naivete is found please do not return.

Found: The sophomore class has finally found out what high school is about. By some astonishing metamorphosis, they've conquered Rufus King. Their spirit is evident everywhere; they've made their mark academically. The sophomore class has taken the school by storm. On second thought, maybe their innocence should be returned.

Bucks have no immediate worry!

In May 1982, the faculty played the students in the annual student staff basketball game. Despite tremendous performances by both teams the game resulted in a tie score.

The first half of the game seemed to be dominated by the staff. They played aggressively and were able to attempt to score several times more than the students. In spite of this, the staff had only a six point lead at the beginning of the second half of the game.

One might think the student team would be a bit down after being outscored in the first half 14-8. However, they came off the bench intent upon gaining the lead and winning the game.

Needless to say, the staff team was not going to let their lead slip away from them after they worked so hard to get it. They no doubt, came off of the bench with every intention of keeping the students from even taking the lead, much less winning the game.

As the second half began, the staff realized that the students had definitely not given up. The staff could feel their lead slipping away very slowly, yet very surely, until the last moments of the game when the score was 22-20 in favor of the staff. Then, in the classic manner present in all timed sports, the students scored at the buzzer. A tie. There was some controversy about the time of the shot that scored but the students prevailed and the shot counted and the game ended 22-22.

After the game members of both teams were heard to say that they had let the other team keep up so would not feel bad about losing. Typical General generosity!

Fads and fancies of 82-83

Through out the 1982-83 year many fads have come and gone.

E.T. hit the fad craze this year as his cute little alien body was admired and sought after by many.

The smurfs made it big with their weekly series. Many of these smurfy little creatures had minitures made, stuffed smurfs, t-shirts and other things. They also cut a top 20 album with many hits like Controversy, Highway to Hell, Smurf City, and Let's Smurf This Town.

The Valley people came around with tubular things like mini skirts, and a totally new language which was on Frank Zappa's Album "A Ship Arriving too Late to Save a Drowning Witch."

Mr. and Mrs. PacMan even munched their way into fads. They had PacMan apparel, cups, towels, and a 45 called PacMan Fever.

'Who is that violinist?'

Another Spirit Week has passed with a lot of enjoyment from both the teachers and students. The week started off with Hawaiian-Surfer Day. There were a variety of tourists and grass skirts. Toga Day brought the remembrance of the Roman Era. Bedsheets of every color and design were seen in the halls of Rufus King. Punk Funk day was again in the week of fun. There were so many safety pins and mohawks. Friday was Blue and Gold Day. The spirit of Rufus King students was extremely alive on this day. Not only was the dress Blue and Gold, but the people were Blue and Gold. As for the teachers, it didn't stop them from giving homework.

The annual Rufus King Fashion Show provided students, teachers, and visitors a chance to eye some new and fall winter fashions. There were a variety of scenes. Kirk Wolfe with the help of Ms. Jupka added dazzling choreography.

Scenes ranged from "Professional Apparel" to the popular "New Wave". The Outfits ranged from, for the ladies, skirts and matching blazers, furs, casual dress, and formal dress. The men's outfits included the professional looking wool suits, casual dress, and more formal tuxedos. The audience had the opportunity to view fashion and talent at the same time.

"Candlelight and Roses" a flowering success

The Rufus King's 1982 Prom, held at Nantucket Shores, May 7, was an event for all who attended to remember. The theme, "Candlelight and Roses", appropriately reflected the evening. The band, "Believe It", was also an added attraction. The naming of the King and Queen, Joe Colon and Sheri Patrillo, was an exciting and suspenseful moment. The flashing lights of the cameras helped to preserve these moments for future reminiscing. The formal events ended at 12 00 am, but that didn't prevent our "King" and "Queen" from having a continuously good time till the break of dawn. The "Princes", Dan Serebin, Steve Kubetz, Harold Young, Derrick Jones, and Euriel Jordan, were accompanied by "Princesses" Danielle Johnson, Maria Lanzillo, Jo Ann Lieblein, Christy Brown, and Sheila Brown. Those who remember "Candlelight and Roses" will remember a night of fond memories.

Shaking into the future with the Pom Pon squad.

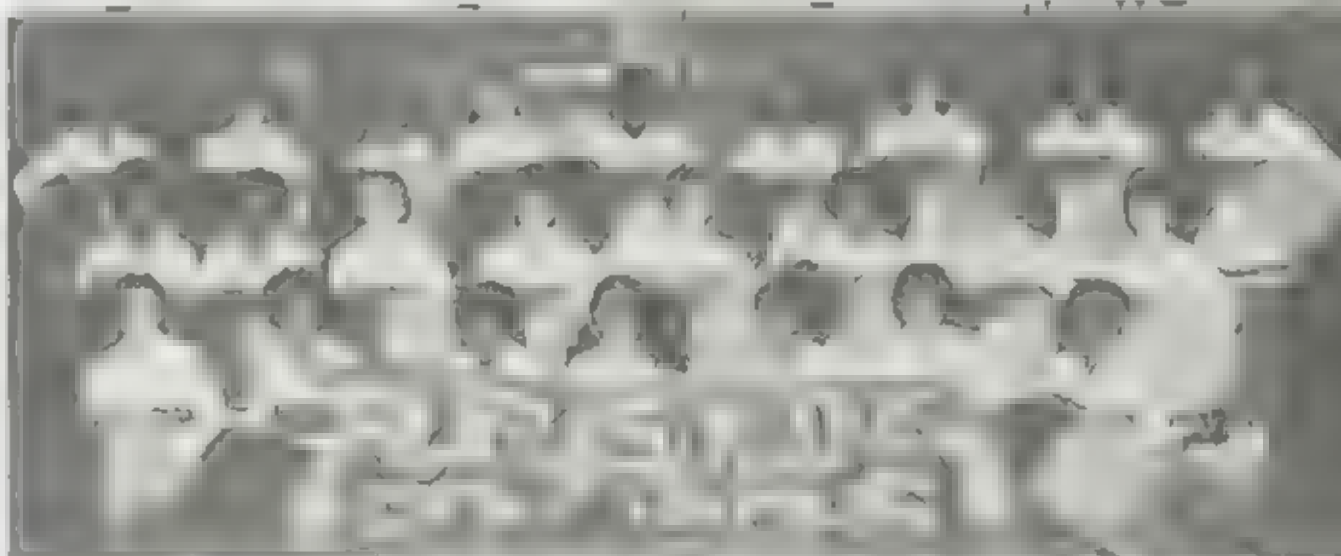

The 1982-83 season has been successful for the Rufus King Pom Pon squad.

All of the girls on the Varsity squad have provided half-time entertainment for all the spectators during the Basketball and Football games.

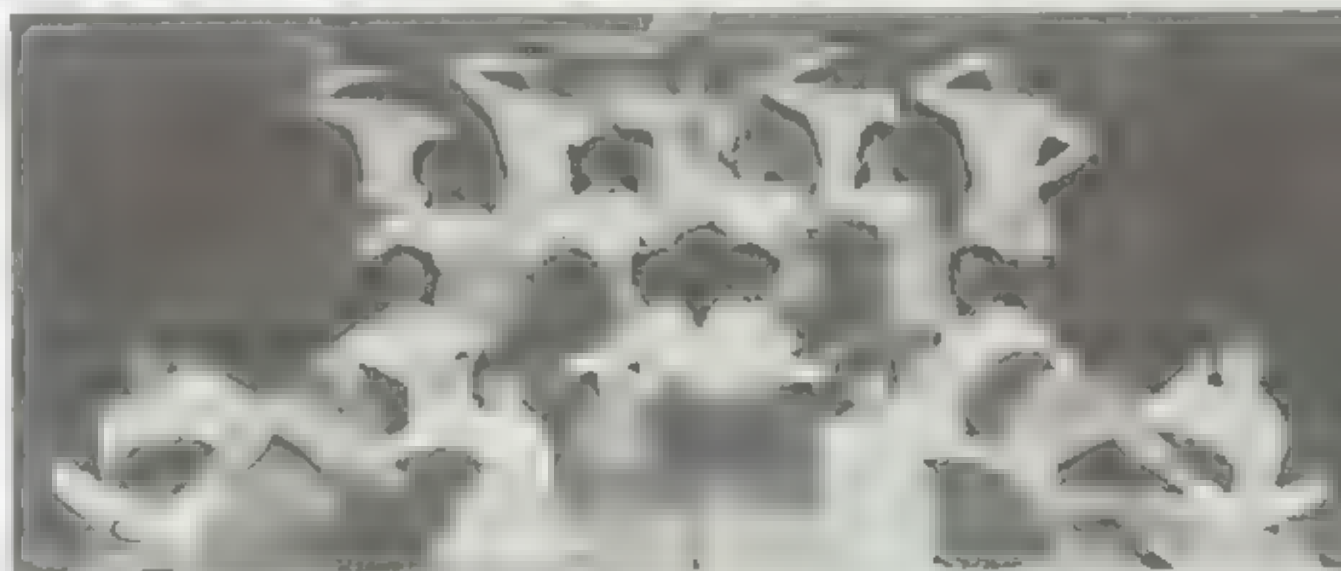

Bridget Bunn did an outstanding job as captain of the squad, as did Gwen Horton and LaRhonda Wells, the squads Lieutenants. They all provided the needed discipline and effort to establish many successful routines.

The squad was asked to perform in the annual Downtown Christmas Parade in 1982, and they did a great job!

With the gained experience from 1982 and 1983, the next season should be even more enjoyable and entertaining.

Attack of the Water Skunk

The 1982 Rufus King Homecoming dance turned out to be a wonderful evening for all who participated. After the football team easily stomped out Juneau, 32-0, the student body became ready for the festivities.

The Homecoming committee did a fantastic job decorating the cafeteria with balloons, and blue and gold streamers, which were outdone only by the enthusiastic student body turn out. Most students were coupled, but the several stags allowed for a more casual atmosphere, enjoyed by all.

The evening culminated with the presentation of the Court, and the crowning of King Robert Hackett, and Queen Christy Brown.

King's 1982-1983 chess team achieved a 9-4 record and took third place in the Suburban conference, an outstanding showing for a school that has had a team for only two years. The team plans to attend the state meet in March, 1983, where they hope to better last year's already impressive 11th place out of thirty teams showing.

Two exceptional players who contributed a great deal to the success of this year's team are Dominick Riesland and George Roemer.

Coach Salyards has great confidence that the team will next year be able to take first place in the challenging suburban conference.

In pursuit of a better apple

Yes folks this club exists but lacks a specific structure. Unlike its machine idol, it's program does not compute with regularity. Whether Pascal or Basic, students gain experience with complex math problem solving, animated graphics, and analytical theory solving. Mr. Kranendonk, an expert in computers, works with students from beginner to advanced. By phoning in data to the main computer downtown, printouts are returned through King's computers with information on games, problems, and graphics. Frequently you can find various students sitting transfixed in front of an IBM, APPLE, or Sinclair computer mesmerized by minute images. No doubt, room 201 is becoming the place to hangout!

National Honor Society opts for service

Contrary to popular opinion, the National Honor Society is more than the usual 30 rifraf getting together to discuss skirt lengths. This year the organization has gone all out, sponsoring fundraisers and various community services. Members staff a tutoring service at Atkinson Library twice a week in all subjects. Members also engage in service activities at Pleasant View school and nursing homes.

Spanish Club has indeed spent another active year. Led by President Charles Zolicoffer, the club has busied itself with fundraising activities for an upcoming trip to Spain, and a special scholarship which will be given to one of the graduating seniors. The club has also scheduled a Cotillion for second semester. In the mean time, Spanish Honor Society members have offered their services for tutoring in the mornings. What a group!

This years Latin club has a variety of interests. These interests range from Saturnalia distribution to mastering the basics. In areas of basics, this year's club hosted the National Latin Exam and hoped to sponsor a contest on Roman culture and Latin Grammar for selected schools city wide. This fell through due to the many happenings of the spring. The Club is hoping to do some service work in the future because of a feeling that King is isolated from its community. In keeping with the Culture they're keeping an eye on show, and the arts. There is hope of going to Chicago in the future to visit the Art Institute, The Fed Museum, or just going "Museum Hopping" on a Saturday afternoon. What Fun!

Week in wilds offers peaceful escape

A Special
by Maria Williams

During this past summer, while most people were playing ball, sun-bathing, or swimming in the local pool, Mr. Glasenapp, 8 students, and Miss Katie Marcus, an R.N. from St. Michael's Hospital, spent a week canoeing on the beautiful, rough boundary waters between Canada and Minnesota.

The students included Tom and Henry French, Spikey Edwards, Charles Auer, Dan Baldwin, Steve Schlosser, Steve Zubrensky, and me.

On July 15th our group took a charter bus to Gunflint Lodge in Minnesota. At the lodge we were given food packs, tents, canoes, and a map. We were headed for our first destination, undecided at the time.

We first challenged a rapid which everyone managed easily and, confident with our life vests on, we soon thought we were canoeing experts. We were prohibited from going down some rapids, so we had to portage—carry the canoes across land.

In the afternoon we reached our first campsite which actually was an island with little room for more than one person. We didn't mind because canoeing all day is so exhausting. We docked the canoes and pitched our tents (which later filled with rain during the night).

After pitching the tents we went fishing and caught our meal for the next night—bass, northern pike, and walleye.

The following day we encountered only two rapids. Everyone made it through the first one, but Dan Baldwin and Steve Zubrensky had a little trouble with the second. Dan was forced to jump out of his canoe so it wouldn't swamp on poor Steve. Steve was stuck up against a rock as the rest of us paddled by smoothly. With their experience they soon had the situation under control and were on their way.

The next campsite was very nice and even had primitive bathroom accommodations. The fishing was not as good, though. I was fishing off shore when, all of a sudden, I heard Spikey Edwards yelling, so I thought he must have caught a fish. Instead, a leech had caught Spikey right on his ankle.

The next morning we were off battling a fierce headwind, but we made it safely to our next campsite. We tried fishing again but the only thing that got caught was Steve Zubrensky's fishing pole in the weeds. He soon got it out, only to drop it in the lake. Tom French dove off the canoe but was too late. The pole had sunk to the bottom.

On the fifth day into the trip Henry French and I were finished portaging and packing up our canoe first. While waiting for the others, Henry had a brilliant idea. He said, "Maria, let's paddle upstream into the rapids."

Dan sports his new hat.

National Canoe Convention

The first time attempting this was so much fun because the current sent us back down. The second time the current swung the canoe around; we hit a rock, and flipped over. The fun was over and we faced an angry Mr. Glasenapp, who had nicknames for both of us.

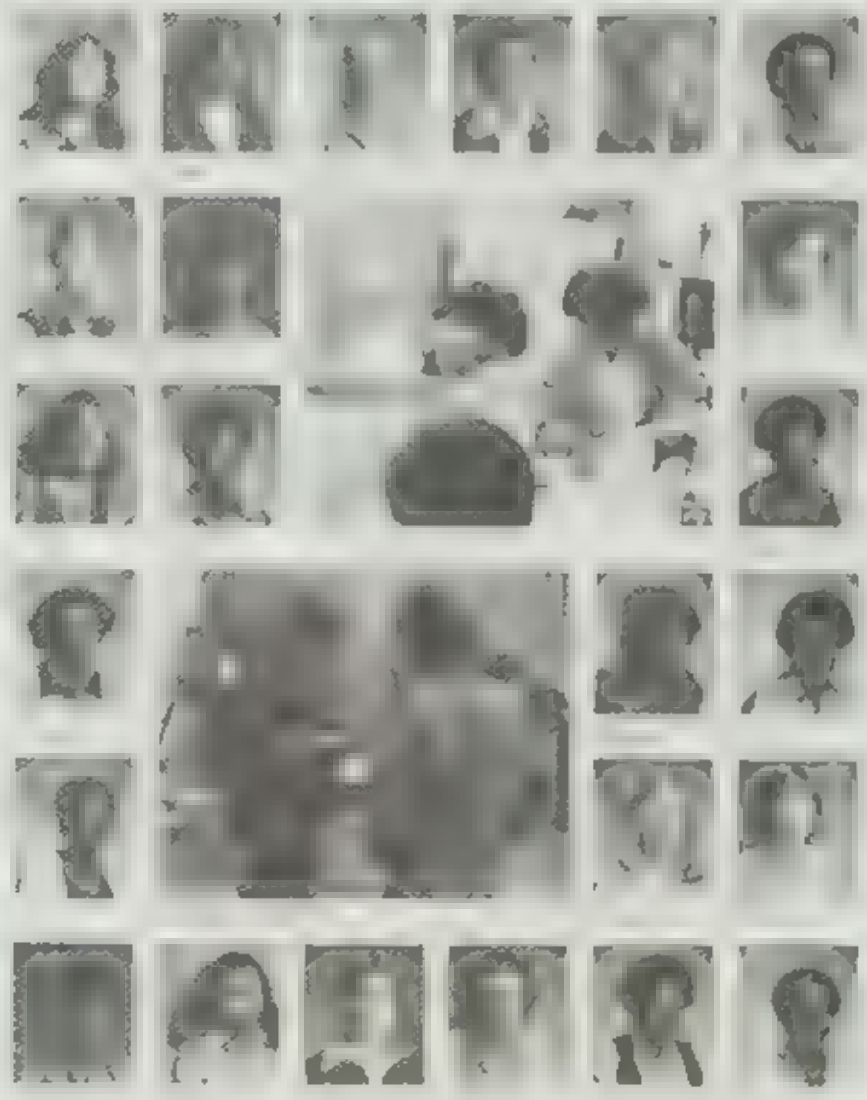

We made it back to the lodge without further mishap, had a great all-you-can-eat barbecue, loaded the bus, and, after travelling all night, arrived in Milwaukee the next morning.

Everyone agreed that the trip was a great experience. We survived not only the rapids and the outdoor wilderness, but we also survived a week of fun without radio, television, McDonald's, junkfood and talking on the telephone.

Next year Mr. Glasenapp hopes to have 40 students participating. Start saving your money for a week in the wilderness. We all plan to make it our second excursion into the wilds of Canada.

French and friend

The seniors of 1983 have much to remember from their years at King. The class of 1983 is the second to graduate after spending four full years in King's program for the college bound. These seniors contributed a great deal to the growing reputation of King as a high school for the college bound student.

The seniors are the last group helping to set up King's I.B. program. The future I.B. students have much to thank the seniors who participated in this program.

During the spring break of 1982 King sent a team largely made up of members of the class of 1983 for the first time to the United States Academic Decathlon in California. This year many seniors are again involved in the Decathlon. Other academic contests are also being entered by the seniors. One of these contests is future problem solving with James Kroll sponsoring four teams of seniors.

Yet the contributions of the seniors are not only to be found in the academic arena. Few of us can forget those senior athletes who have made King's teams sparkle for the last four years. These athletes include John Milton for basketball, football, and track; Rodney Campbell for football, and wrestling; Robert Hackett for track and football; Willie Hines for basketball and track; Derrick Jones for basketball and track; and Dan Serebin for baseball. However we must not forget King's other group of athletes including Dawn Lehmann for volleyball; Christy Brown for track and basketball; Denise Silverman for volleyball, basketball, and softball; and Anne Fogarty for track and basketball.

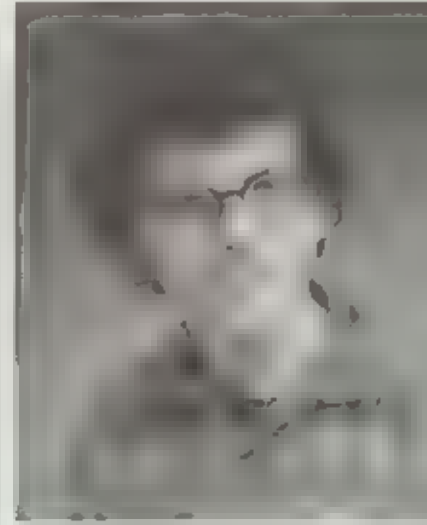

Overall, the class of 1983 has much to look forward to in the years to come. If their years at King are any indication at all, the members of this special group will go on to do a great many things in the future.

1983 Senior Class goes out in style

Special Seniors deserve credit

Robert Hackett-born to run

This outstanding senior athlete has accomplished many remarkable feats in track and field and is headed for stardom as a world class sprinter. Robert's athletic skills are sought after by many notable Colleges and Universities. While at King he has grown in reputation throughout the state. His association with the Milwaukee Striders also has promoted his ability and gained him a great deal of media coverage. Listed below is a brief summary of his Track accomplishments

Robert has received Scholarship offers from all UW schools plus Univ. of Tenn., Tenn. State Grambling, Jackson State, Texas, Austin, Georgia Tech. Robert has also been all Conference in Football for two years

Denise Silverman-no doubt about the future

Mentally and Physically this Senior excels. In Athletics, Denise has won many awards. She has participated in Volley, Basket, and Softball for four years. In Softball Denise was a starter and letter winner every year she went out. This talented Catcher was named to the All Conference team her Sophomore and Junior years. The Volleyball Team could not have survived without her outstanding skills. In Denise's Sophomore year she was voted most promising, in her Junior year- most improved, and in her Senior year- Best all around athlete and best serving percentage. As far as Basketball is concerned one only has to check her Statistics. She was Eleventh in the Conference in rebounds. Her Junior Year, Most promising her Junior Year, and the team leader in assists her sophomore year

Academically, Denise has also been competitive. In her Sophomore year, she was inducted into The National Honor Society, and maintained at least a 3.61 grade-point average or better. The Future looks very bright for this Multi-Talented individual

Tom Hansen-portrait of the best

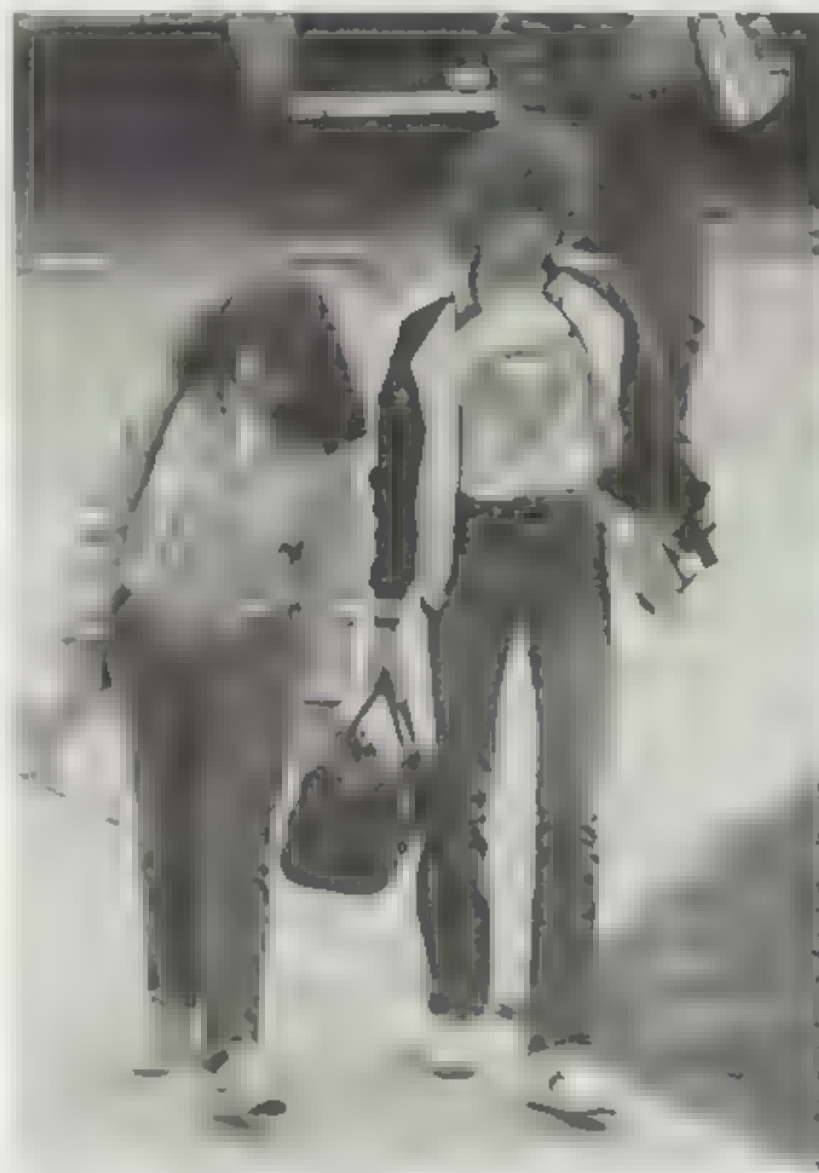

As the head Yearbook Photographer for four years, Tom Hansen has produced thousands of outstanding photos. Tom is in control of all facets of Photography. An outside Parttime Job working for the Dark room Photo Store provides Tom with all the latest supplies and Photographic equipment. In the summer of 1982, Tom was selected for "Earth Watch", A program involving High School science students. This Senior is dedicated to his craft, which is to become a more knowledgeable and profecient Photographer. Tom plans to continue on in school, keeping alive his quest for better application of a highly visual and documentive medium. Rufus King will not be the same without Tom Hansen capturing us on film and preserving those special moments

Jonathan Ellwanger-ready for Broadway

In Four years as a High School student at Rufus King, Jonathan Ellwanger has compiled a list of honors and credits that take some of us a life time to accumulate. His WSM record has included 4 gold medals for tenor solos, plus numerous one star, first place ratings which enabled him to compete in state competition each of his four years. As a Junior he returned home with 3 gold state medals. His 1982 duet with Senior Kirk Wolfe was called by the judges, "The best performance we have ever heard at a state level competition"

Besides carrying a heavy academic load, Jonathan was a member of the First Academic Decathlon Team and A National Silver Medal Winner. Outside of School he has been a member of The Wisconsin State Honors Choir, and he is presently the youngest member of the Milwaukee Symphony Chorus. Acting also plays an important role in this Senior's list of accomplishments. He has performed and had the lead three times in four years in King's Musicals, with credits such as Godspell, The Good Doctor, Once Upon a Mattress, West Side Story, and Pippin.

King students visit Mexico

On April 8, 1982, Ms. Clara Murillo, Ms. Ardenne Bunde, and Mr. Robert Krass escorted approximately twenty-five of Rufus King's students to Acapulco, Mexico. The students stayed for nine glorious days and eight beautiful nights.

Venturing out on their own at times, the students were able to practice their Spanish and obtain a feel for the Mexican Culture. Among the highlights of the trip were: A day cruise around a nearby bay; an afternoon at El Mirador hotel to watch the daring cliff divers; and an evening at the Acapulco Center to attend a performance of the folkloric dancers.

Recognizing the difference in the environment and culture, the students noticed the politeness of the people in Mexico. They also learned to adjust to spending their money and bargaining with the salespeople.

Mexico is beautiful country, but it also has its drawbacks especially in the area of poverty. A group of students decided to tour the not so beautiful regions of Acapulco, which I refer to as "Acapulco's ghetto." Small children begging for food and money, some even starving. Many living in unsanitary conditions. Although not a very pleasant sight to see, the situation was still very touching.

Native Mexicans crowded the shoreline, awaiting the arrival of King students.

King students visit Spain

In March 1982, two Rufus King students, Andrea Lipchik and Lisa Lisiecki were able to travel to Spain as part of a group of students from Wisconsin and Minnesota.

The trip, sponsored by Intercultural Student Exchange, covered seven cities: Madrid, Segovia, Cordoba, Cadiz, Sevilla, Granada and Malaga. Each student spent six days of the two and one half week trip as a member of a Spanish family.

Among the great benefits gained from the trip were experiences Lisa and Andrea will never forget, such as learning to live with people of a different culture as well as with other young people in the group.

Confusion

King's teachers-Is there life after education?

David Mackinson-Steven Spielberg in the rough

This English teacher is truly dramatic. Although his classes may be structured within a certain framework, Mr. Mackinson has successfully created and directed award winning musicals and dramas at King. Godspell, The Miser, and West Side Story were tremendous hits. Both Godspell and The Miser were invited to be performed at the P.A.C. in the high school theatre arts competition. Godspell received a first place award in the high school Showcase competition. Mr. Mackinson's drama department is one of the most popular extracurricular activities and each year many students compete for roles in the new productions.

Drama students meditate to success

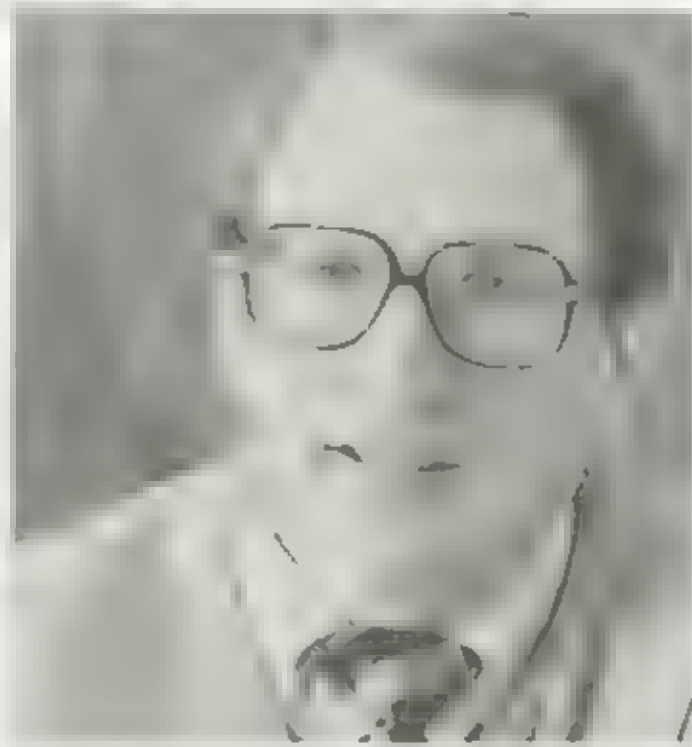

Debra Jupka-a multitalent

Dancer, singer, director, choreographer; this faculty member, to say the least, is very involved. Aside from leading the chorus and choir she works extensively with Mr. Mackinson on many of our theatrical productions. Outside of school Ms. Jupka has performed on her own in such productions as Oklahoma, and as the lead in Cabaret. With great skill and determination, Ms. Jupka has developed the Varsity and J.V. Pom Pom squads. These outstanding groups have performed all over the city, most recently in the 1982 Downtown Christmas parade. Ms. Jupka has also coached talented singers such as Sharon Brooks, Renee Rittenhouse, and Kirk Wolfe. No one will ever question her enthusiasm and dedication for her profession.

Thomas Richter-a punctual spook

A collector of antique clocks, an investigator of the supernatural, an owner of a 1941 packard, and a church tower clock winder: this is Mr. Richter. Unusual you say, yes, but very interesting. This complex individual appears gentle and in complete control. Much may be read into his outside interests, similar to the books he collects and enjoys. Poe, Irving, and La Fenu are among this man's favorite writers

Really into education

Richard Minor-singing singles

Do you know a foreign language teacher who plays and coaches boys tennis, aerobatics, and works out constantly at Le Club? You guessed it! Mr. Minor. This man sings with the Florentine Opera Company around Milwaukee and performs at churches, weddings, funerals, and anniversaries. The nattily attired and eloquently voiced Mr. Minor also is a member of the planning committee for summer Germanfest

James Kroll-a man for all events

A faculty member who is what one might call "really into" education: this is Mr. Kroll. Mr. Kroll heads the I.B. program, Academic Decathlon, Olympics of the Mind, and chaired the committee for The American Government Book. How does this man have time to eat, sleep, or anything else beyond functioning as a guiding force in King? Mr. Kroll finds time to read the New York Times and the London Times. He also works on his dissertation which centers on urban education. You will see Mr. Kroll at many athletic events because he assumes the responsibility of North Stadium Manager.

Wu st M r kha?

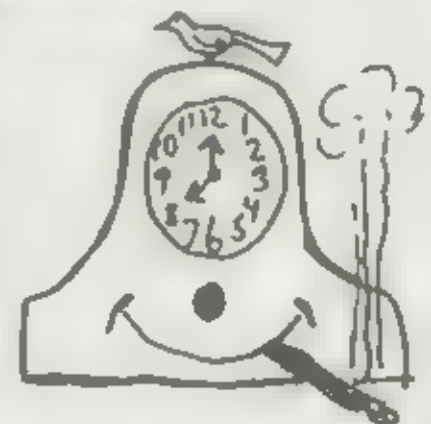

Love that smile

Sprechen Sie Deutsch? I don't

A study in contrast

Ardenne Bunde-a true activist

Ms. Bunde is a foreign language teacher, but she is also an opera singer, writer and leader in the South American Solidarity Movement. Her concert are mostly benefits for churches, although she has performed at the Skylight Theatre and Cafe Le Boheme Ms Bunde has also performed in Pennsylvania and New York. Aside from articles and speeches concerning the South American Solidarity Movement, this socio-politically involved woman devotes time to the Ecumenical Refugee Council Sanctuary

Larry Gardner-a year-round doer

A man for all seasons, Mr. Gardner races kayaks in the summer, runs like a soccer referee in the fall, skis in the winter, and runs for fun in the spring. This architectural drafting teacher does everything well. Mr. Gardner plans his work and works his plan. Gymnastics is another area where he shows his expert knowledge. Staying in shape seems to be Mr. Gardner's strong suit

School is fun!

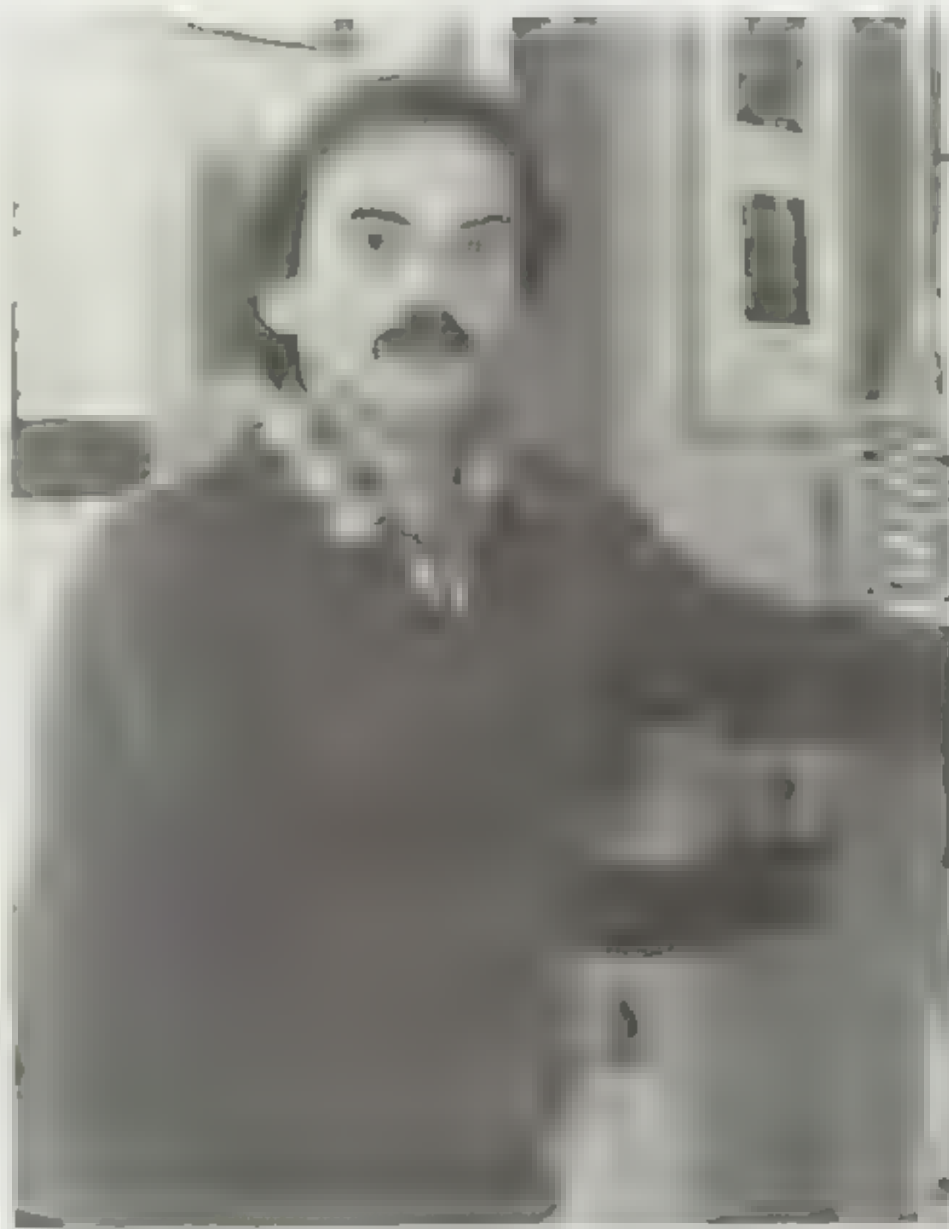

James Pantazon-a man with a story

A writer and a poet, Mr. Pantazon has written and published several of his works. His non-fiction short stories and an anthology of poems have recently received critical acclaim. Mr. Pantazon is currently writing two novels soon to be available for public scrutiny. This creative individual also enjoys venturing into the realm of stocks as a small investor. With his family in mind, Mr. Pantazon weighs his losses and gains critically as he analyzes a short story. A few of his other outside interests center around gardening and carpentry.

Richard Zutz-an art fart

The chairman of King's growing Art department has previously worked as a Gallery Director, Commercial artist, Ceta artist, University Seminar lecturer, and a drawing/design instructor. Trained as a painter, printmaker, and draftsman, Mr. Zutz maintains his artists career as well as teaching Commercial art, I.B. art, and Arts and Crafts. Some recent exhibitions of his work have been at the P.A.C., Milwaukee Art Museum, Chicago Children's Aid society, Lawrence University, and Mount Mary College

Aside from his involvement in the visual arts, Mr. Zutz spends time white water rafting on the Arkansas and Wolf rivers, horseback riding in Virginia, Colorado, and Illinois and following hot air balloon championship competitions

The majestic look

Derek Gallagher-he got physical

Some see this faculty member as a physical education teacher, some as a professional softball player, some as a basketball coach, while others see him as a city basketball referee. Mr. Gallagher tours the country in the summer with "Schlitz" a championship professional softball team. As a team member, he is fifth in the league with a 504 batting average and the starting second base man. Coach Gallagher also is an avid weight-lifter at the Nautilus Fitness Center. Unquestionably this man possesses not only strength but speed, in the form of a 1979 Corvette and a 1981 Fiat. Does this man really eat quiche??

Male students stand out

The male population of Rufus King High School is characterized by its diverse interests, its wide range of talents and abilities, and of course, its charm. King is a composite of photographers, musicians, whalers, athletes, preachers, debaters, salesmen, hunters, bikers, dancers, scuba divers, models, and artists. King seems to have a knack for attracting young men of this calibre. As a result, they deserve a second look; so here they are.

No man can reveal to you nothing but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the halls among his students gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter his house of wisdom, but rather leads, you to the threshold of your own mind.

The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of space but he cannot give you his understanding.

The musician may seem to you of the rhythm which in all space but he cannot give you one ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it. And he who is versed in the science of numbers can tell of the regions of weight and measure, but he cannot conduct you thither.

For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man, so seeks your own heights.

Congratulations Dawn

ANNOUNCING

An Advanced Dungeons & Dragons campaign:

Barzia

the shattered empire

Players are wanted, who have experience with AD&D, or have a willingness to learn. A background in fantasy literature is also desirable. Meetings will be held at UWM on a weekly basis. Barzia is a role-playing game, not a "roll"-playing game. Barzia will take AD&D out of the dungeons and into the realm of high fantasy. The Dungeon Master will be Tom Mueller; contact him for details. phone: 463-5115 you cannot have youth and the knowledge of it to the same time; for youth is too busy living to know and knowledge is too busy seeking itself to live

but dear daughter your ears should thrust for the sound of your heart's knowledge (self-knowledge) and the treasure of its infinite depths will be revealed to your eyes seek not the depths of your self-knowledge with a staff or sounding line let there be no scales to weigh your unknown treasure; for self is a sea boundless and measureless.

20 Dave,
I really miss
and intelligent young man I enjoyed getting to know you. I also enjoyed laughing at a talk by the in competition and being a a real nice guy to talk with. You summer & had such a future in you next year.

PS I hope to see on some of your classes next year. Friends always have a real nice day, you but it's really in these classes maybe next year I get it via

 of my classes with it summer.
 I'm not sure the time
 this summer.

I'm not sure the time
 this summer.

Come,
 I had a great time in lunch, working at (name)
 future as the big money
 Lisa. Take a great summer,

Hi Dave,
I already wrote you a note
so... I like you +
your sense of humor,
but I don't like your friends
(just kidding). So I hope you are in at least one of my classes
next year so I can laff.
Eye for now

Dave -

Wow - we made it through a whole year of Clyde (Salvador's, that is) Thank God

It was fun having you around - re complain with (no no). Next year is it - Senior Power! ☺

Enjoy your summer -

To Dave
How's life been? I don't talk to you much except in the halls. I hope this year has been good for you.
Just think the Hartford class rules next year. I can't believe this is our senior year. It's gone by so fast. Well I hope you have a great summer which I'm sure you will.
Good luck for next year

I'm glad that I'm your friend
I had a funny class. Because of my Tom and Randy at first. This class was boring for me. And last now, I have your name
Thank you for your kindness.
I'd like to see you again.

Hi Dave,
you are really a nice + sweet guy.
Camp was a pretty fun class with massa in it. You guys had alot of fun!
Keep up the good work in football!
